Published by Authority.

From Thursday July 6. to Monday July 10. 1704.

THE following Addreſs has been preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon and Beneficed Clergy, of the Dioceſe of Carliſle.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and moſt Obedient Subjects, humbly beg Leave to preſent to Your Majeſty our moſt hearty and unfeigned Thanks for that unparallel'd Goodneſs which Your Majeſty has been Graciouſly pleaſed to expreſs towards the poorer Vicarages and unendow'd Cures of this Kingdom: 'Tis a Charity, Publick in its Nature; High and Honourable in its Object; and which happily illuſtrates thoſe many Divine Virtues that are (of themſelves) ſo Conſpicuous in Your Majeſty's Reign.

In theſe remoter Parts of the Nation, there are too frequent Inſtances of the low Eſtate of Your Clergy; where thoſe who attend upon Holy Things have a meaner Subſiſtence than Perſons of much inferior Profeſſions: And, as their Condition is deplorable, ſo 'tis only to be reliev'd by Your Majeſty's Royal Bounty and the Pious Concern of Your Great Council.

That God Almighty, who has been pleaſed to open Your Generous Heart in ſo ſignal an Emanation of unprecedented Charity, would accept Your Oblation, and ever Crown Your Sacred Perſon and Government with all Temporal and Spiritual Bleſſings, is the conſtant Prayer of, Madam, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and moſt Grateful Subjects.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty received very Graciouſly.

Revel, June 20. N. S. Vice-Admiral Pru, who lately ſailed from hence with a Squadron of Swediſh Men of War, and divers Veſſels laden with Proviſions and Ammunition, for Narva, is returned hither, finding it impracticable to ſend any Supplies into that Place, which continues cloſely blocked up by the Muſcovites both by Sea and Land. He has loſt two of his Ships, which were forced on Shore in a Storm, whereof one was ſeized by the Muſcovites, and the other was ſtaved to pieces. The Enemy has alſo blocked up Dorpat, and frequently ſends out Parties further into this Province, to ravage the Country and to deſtroy the Corn.

Sendomir, June 20. The King of Poland ſent lately from hence a Detachment of 5000 Saxons and Lithuanians, under the Command of the Prince of Wiſnowiski, Caſtellan of Wilna, and a Saxon General, with Orders to obſerve General Reinſchild, who lay within a few Leagues of this Place with a Body of Swediſh Forces. They marched accordingly towards his Camp, and on the 18th Inſtant met with a Detachment of his Troops of 500 Horſe, whom they ſurrounded, fell upon them, and put moſt of them to the Sword, the Lithuanians giving no Quarter. The King has paſſed the Weiſſel with the reſt of his Army, and has removed his Camp further from hence than it was before. General Radomiski has brought over to the King's Intereſt a great number of the Nobility of the Greater Poland, who were in the Confederacy, and he lately held an Aſſembly of the Chief of them at Koſvia, wherein ſeveral Reſolutions were taken for the better diſappointing the Deſigns of the Cardinal Primate, and thoſe of his Party. While they were aſſembled, a ſmall Body of Swediſh Forces came before the Place; whereupon the Nobility marched out, and obliged them to retire. Lemberg, the chief Town of Ruſſia, with its Garriſon, conſiſting of 700 Men of the Forces of the Crown, has alſo declared for the King. Monſieur Smiegelski, who commands a Body of the King's Troops in the Palatinate of Poſen, has lately gained ſome Advantages over the Swediſh Forces in thoſe Parts.

Warſaw, June 24. The Heads of the Confederated Nobility met here the 19th Inſtant, in order to proceed to the Choice of a new King, but, by reaſon of the very ſmall appearance of Senators, and other Members of their Aſſembly, adjourned till the 26th; and it is generally believed the Election will then be put off for ſome longer time. The Cardinal Primate has received an Expreſs with Letters from the Pope, exhorting him not to proceed any further in that Matter, but rather to endeavour an Accommodation of the Differences between the King and the Confederates, and the reſtoring of the Peace of his Country; and the ſame Expreſs was immediately ſent back with the Cardinal's Anſwer. We hear the King of Poland has removed his Camp from under the Cannon of Sendomir; and it is believed he deſigns to advance further towards Sileſia, in order to facilitate his joining the Reinforcements he expects from Saxony.

Dantzick, June 28. Our Magiſtrates have given Directions for the making of ſome Alterations in the Fortifications of this Place, and adding ſome new Works thereto. The King of Sweden is marching with all his Forces out of Pruſſia, and paſſed the Weiſſel the 26th Inſtant at Graudentz, in his way to Warſaw.

Briſtol, July 4. The Nevis Merchant, Charles Rynion Maſter, came in here the 2d Inſtant from the Weſt-Indies, but laſt from Milford. This day came in the Spy Gally of London, John Kimber Maſter, homeward-bound from Aveiro in Portugal: She was chaſed in her Paſſage by 3 French Privateers, but had the good fortune to fall in with a Ship of 60 Guns from Genoa, bound to Amſterdam, who protected her.

Yarmouth, July 7. Her Majeſty's Ships the Cheſter and Nightingale came into our Road the 4th Inſtant from the Southward, with divers light Colliers under their Convoy, bound for Newcaſtle; ſince which ſeveral more are come in, ſo that here are now above 300 of them waiting for a fair Wind. Her Majeſty's Ship the Briſtol, and a Dutch Man of War, which lately came in from Rotterdam with a Fleet of Merchant-men, do ſtill continue here.

St. James's, July 4. This day the Count de Briançon, Envoy Extraordinary from his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Savoy, had a private Audience of Her Majeſty, and afterwards of his Royal Highneſs, being introduced to both theſe Audiences by Charles Cottrell Eſq; Aſſiſtant-Maſter of the Ceremonies.

The Count de Maffei, Envoy Extraordinary from his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Savoy, had a private Audience of Leave of Her Majeſty, and afterwards of his Royal Highneſs, being likewiſe introduced to both theſe Audiences by Charles Cottrell Eſq; Aſſiſtant-Maſter of the Ceremonies.
